Some came back, others did not

More than one million Canadians donned a uniform during the Second World War. The Juno Beach Centre is a museum and cultural centre which pays homage to the 45,000 Canadians who lost their lives during the War, of which 5,500 were killed during the Battle of Normandy and 359 on D-Day.

Activity! Locate the following words related to remembrance

Pilgrimage | Memory | Remembrance | Homage
Commemorate | Grateful |

E-mail us at contact@junobeach.org and we will send you the answer key