Two ideologies at war

For the most part, the leaders of the Allied countries were democratically elected by their people. However even in these countries, rights were not always extended equally to everyone, especially racial minorities. Other leaders were totalitarian dictators who ruled by imposing fear, terror, imprisonment of their opponents, and racial discrimination. Most leaders parted into two opposing camps, which represented these opposing values and ideals. Some leaders left one camp for the other.

Activity! Who said what? Write the name of the leader under his quote.

1. 25-08-1944
   - The word is with the people. The word of the people is the word of the sovereign.

2. 20-09-1922
   - We, fascist militias, must first sternly discipline ourselves.

3. 05-11-1943
   - A superior order of culture has existed in Greater East Asia from its very beginning...

4. SEPTEMBER 1939
   - It is ... this determination to dominate throughout the world, which is the real cause of the war.

5. 1942
   - ...the House of Commons... is the citadel of British liberty.

6. 30-01-1945
   - Judaism began systematically to undermine our nation from within...

7. APRIL 1945
   - Everyone imposes one’s own system as far as one’s army can reach.

8. 30-10-1940
   - It is with honour, and in order to maintain French unity... that today I am embarking on the path of collaboration.

9. 06-01-1941
   - Our national policy in internal affairs has been based upon a decent respect for the rights and dignity of all our fellow-men within our gates.

E-mail us at contact@junobeach.org and we will send you the answer key